

FASHION LAW NEWSLETTER - DECEMBER 2018

Date: 7 December 2018

By: Jonathan Feder, Savannah Hardingham

"People will stare. Make it worth their while." - Harry Winston

Welcome to our latest edition of Fashion Law.

In this edition we look at the steps the New South Wales and Australian Governments are taking to tackle modern slavery. Australian businesses need to understand what is required under the new laws, and get prepared to report on their supply chains.

We also take a look at a New Zealand trade mark opposition, superannuation requirements and a look at the international markets and the importance of managing and protecting your brand and designs beyond Australia's borders. Finally, we look at the changes in Australian parallel importation laws, which relate to the importation of genuine products by parties that are not authorised by brand owners.

Please click here to read Fashion Law.

KEY CONTACTS

JONATHAN FEDER
PARTNER

MELBOURNE
+61.3.9640.4375
JONATHAN.FEDER@KLGATES.COM

---

This publication/newsletter is for informational purposes and does not contain or convey legal advice. The information herein should not be used or relied upon in regard to any particular facts or circumstances without first consulting a lawyer. Any views expressed herein are those of the author(s) and not necessarily those of the law firm's clients.