

Gavin Gray

Chief Operating Officer

New York
+1.212.536.3963

Gavin.Gray@klgates.com

OVERVIEW

Gavin Gray is the firm's chief operating officer, based primarily in the firm's New York office. Gavin is a collaborative, strategic leader with 20+ years of global law firm management experience and a proven record of developing, implementing, and sustaining improved organizational performance.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining the firm, Gavin most recently was the North American regional operating officer for a large global law firm, managing business services functions across the United States, Canada, and Mexico. Prior, Gavin was the chief information officer for a large international law firm for several years, and has held other large firm leadership positions. He is very active in the legal ecosystem, working closely with service and technology providers and legal operations professionals to improve collaboration and bring improvements to the business of law.

PROFESSIONAL / CIVIC ACTIVITIES

- Inducted as a fellow of The College of Law Practice Management in 2020
- Recognized as Law Technology News "CIO of the Year" in 2013
- Active contributor and collaborator across the corporate legal operations ecosystem through CLOC (Corporate Legal Operations Consortium) and other industry groups

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

Gavin is a regular speaker and contributor to legal industry organizations and conferences in both the United States and Europe.