

Selin Hasip

Lawyer

Melbourne
+61.3.9205.2060

Selin.Hasip@klgates.com

OVERVIEW

Selin Hasip is a commercial litigation and insolvency lawyer with experience acting on complex corporate and personal insolvencies, large scale loan recoveries and securities enforcement matters. She has assisted with conducting a number of noteworthy public examination proceedings of directors and bankrupts.

Selin has advised financiers, insolvency accounting firms and unlisted companies across a range of sectors, including hospitality, mining and resources, and transport.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining the firm, Selin was a lawyer at a boutique Australian law firm where she acted on a number of insolvency and commercial litigation matters.

ACHIEVEMENTS

- Young Gun Finalist (Women in Insolvency and Restructuring Victoria, 2019)

PROFESSIONAL / CIVIC ACTIVITIES

- Law Institute of Victoria member

EDUCATION

- Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice, College of Law, 2017
- J.D., University of Melbourne, 2017
- Bachelor of Biomedicine, University of Melbourne, 2013

ADMISSIONS

- Federal Court of Australia
- High Court of Australia
- Supreme Court of South Australia

AREAS OF FOCUS

- Restructuring and Insolvency

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

- Assisted the special purpose appointed administrators with the conduct of public examinations under the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) of the directors and officers of ASX-listed companies and their investigations relating to a potential antecedent transaction.
- Assisted in advising private lenders with respect to a range of recovery matters, including the enforcement of a variety securities such as mortgages and security interests registered on the Personal Property Securities Register, winding up proceedings and drafting deeds of forbearance and deeds of appointment of receivers and managers.
- Assisted the trustee in bankruptcy with the conduct of public examinations under the Bankruptcy Act 1966 (Cth) of the bankrupt and related persons in connection with the beneficial ownership of real properties and directorship of multiple electrical contracting companies.