

Hael Musa

Lawyer

Melbourne
+61.3.9205.2179

Hael.Musa@klgates.com

OVERVIEW

Hael Musa is a real estate lawyer at the Melbourne office with experience across a broad range of areas including large-scale real estate development; real estate acquisitions and disposals, and commercial, industrial and retail leasing.

He advises clients including vendors, purchasers, property developers, landlords and tenants in relation to their property transactions in sectors such as oil & gas, tourism and leisure and infrastructure and superannuation.

Hael has experience in drafting, negotiating and finalising key transaction documents including contracts, leases, documents and other commercial agreements.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining K&L Gates, Hael worked in-house at Delaware North Companies Australia Pty Ltd and was also at a global law firm in the real estate practice group.

EDUCATION

- Diploma of Legal Practice, College of Law, Victoria, 2013
- Bachelor of Laws and Commerce, Deakin University, 2012

ADMISSIONS

- High Court of Australia
- Supreme Court of Victoria

LANGUAGES

- Arabic

AREAS OF FOCUS

- Real Estate

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

- Primary leasing lawyer for premium grade A commercial office buildings in the CBD.
- Advising and assisting on various residential developments for Guangzhou R&F Properties.
- Advised and assisted on the property aspects of the Queensland Investment Corporation's acquisition of Energy Australia's Iona Gas Plant valued at $1.78 billion.
- Advised and assisted on the property aspects of Hanson Construction Materials $203 million acquisition of Fletcher Building's Rocla Quarry Products business.
- Advising and assisting Vicinity Centres in several acquisitions and disposals of large shopping centres.