OVERVIEW

Bertille Rusé is an associate at the firm's Paris office. She is a member of the Complex Commercial Litigation and Disputes practice group. Her practice focuses on litigation, arbitration (ICC, ad hoc) and dispute resolution.

Bertille represents French and international companies in all stages of civil and commercial international disputes, especially before some Courts in Africa. She regularly advises companies specialized in the banking, transportation, energy, engineering and construction sectors during all pre-litigation and litigation disputes they may face.

She has extensive experience in the field of industrial risks and insurance recovery.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Bertille worked as an intern for several major French and international law firms in Paris. She was admitted to the Paris Bar in 2019.

Prior to joining the firm, Bertille was an associate during more than two years at a major British law firm in Paris.
