OVERVIEW

Anita Zhou is an associate at the firm's Shanghai office. She is a member of the Tax practice group.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining the firm, Anita served as a tax associate at an American-British law firm. Anita helps multinational clients develop sophisticated tax strategies for their international operations and transactions. She understands client's objectives and takes into account the legal, commercial and financial implications involved in each project.

Anita focuses her practice on tax planning for cross-border transactions, tax compliance, tax advice on restructuring, tax dispute resolution, as well as transfer pricing and customs matters.
