OVERVIEW

Yeyun (Carrie) Xu is an associate at the firm's Pittsburgh office. Carrie focuses her practice on corporate and transactional law related to venture capital financings, mergers and acquisitions, and corporate governance matters. She also assists clients on a broad range of commercial contract matters, including technology licensing, supply, services, and partnership arrangements.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining the firm, Carrie was a corporate associate at a multi-national law firm. During her tenure there, she represented various domestic and international clients across industries, including technology, manufacturing, grocery, and media with respect to mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions. Prior to her legal practice, Carrie worked at a multi-national bank in New York in software development and project management.
