

Olivia E. Lunn

Associate

London
+44.20.7360.6479

Olivia.Lunn@klgates.com

OVERVIEW

Olivia Lunn is an associate at the firm's London office. She is a member of the Energy, Infrastructure, and Resources practice group, with a focus on energy-related disputes.

Olivia has recent experience working on arbitrations under the institutional rules of both the ICC and LCIA for construction and energy-related disputes.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Olivia completed her training contract at the firm, gaining experience in the following practice groups: Planning and Environment, Energy, Infrastructure, and Resources (in both energy-related disputes and non-contentious construction), and Corporate.

Prior to joining the firm, Olivia worked at a think-tank, where she primarily worked on reports relating to African nations.

PROFESSIONAL / CIVIC ACTIVITIES

Olivia has worked as a researcher for an environmental law charity, which seeks to promote access to justice around the world.

EDUCATION

- Legal Practice Course, University of Law, 2021
- B.A., University College London, 2019
- Graduate Diploma in Law, University of Law, 2020

ADMISSIONS

- Solicitor of the Senior Courts of England and Wales

OTHER PUBLICATIONS

- “Letter: Rousseau's civil society requires redefining,” Financial Times, May 2021

AREAS OF FOCUS

- Maritime
- Offshore Wind Energy
- Renewables

INDUSTRIES

- Energy
- Energy Disputes

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

- Representing a drilling contractor in two connected arbitrations against a Singaporean yard in a contractual dispute over the delivery of two separate oil rigs.
- Advised a contractor on the available remedies, including an injunction, in relation to a contractual dispute over the construction of an offshore wind project.