

Jacob S. Trevick

Associate

Chicago
+1.312.807.4323

Jacob.Trevick@klgates.com

OVERVIEW

Jacob Trevick is an associate at the firm's Chicago office focusing on international tax. Jacob works with multinationals and private equity firms on a variety of tax issues, including GILTI planning, foreign tax credit utilization, post-merger integration, intellectual property alignment, as well as cross-border acquisitions and dispositions.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining the firm, Jacob served as an international tax and transaction services senior manager at a multinational professional services network.

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

- Wolters Kluwer CLE Webinar, Untangling the Tax Complexities of International Outbound Activities, Chicago, Illinois, 4 November 2022

EDUCATION

- LL.M., Northwestern University Pritzker School of Law, 2009
- J.D., Indiana University, 2008
- B.A., Bard College at Simon's Rock, 2002

ADMISSIONS

- Bar of Illinois

OTHER PUBLICATIONS

- Co-author, “The All Earnings and Profits Amount of a Domesticating Foreign Target: The Non-Recognition Cleansing Exception” 48 Int’l Tax J. 3, May 2022

AREAS OF FOCUS

- Tax

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

- Washington Corporation’s take-private acquisition of Atlas Corp., March, 2023
- CEL Global Investment Fund sale of Burke Porter Group to AEA Investors, August, 2022
- Sale of Lapmaster to Bison Capital, October, 2022
- Post-merger integration of a leading retirement services company into a high-growth alternative asset management company, January, 2022
- Business combination / De-SPAC of LanzaTech / AMCI Acquisition II, February, 2023