OVERVIEW

Sam Gorski is an associate in the firm's Pittsburgh office and a member of the Estate Planning and Trusts and Estates practice. His practice focuses on drafting trusts and estate planning documents and advising clients on minimizing related tax liabilities. He also assists clients with planning for succession of business interests, as well as administration of estates and trusts, and the related tax reporting requirements.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining the firm, Sam served as a staff attorney with a large single-office firm and as an associate with a boutique estate-planning firm, both located in Boston.
