

Mingkun Ding

Associate

Shanghai
+86.21.2211.2060

Mingkun.Ding@klgates.com

OVERVIEW

Mingkun Ding is an associate in the firm's Shanghai office and a member of the Capital Markets practice. He has extensive experience in both the US and Hong Kong capital markets. His practice focuses on US and Hong Kong IPO and post-listing compliance. Prior to joining the firm, Mingkun worked as an associate in another leading global firm.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining the firm, Mingkun worked as an associate in the New York and Shanghai offices in another leading global law firm in both capital market and M&A groups. He has also works as an equity analyst at one of the leading multinational investment banks in China, where he focused in the technology, media, and telecommunications (TMT) sector.

EDUCATION

- J.D., Columbia Law School, 2019
- B.A., Cornell University, 2016

ADMISSIONS

- Bar of New York

LANGUAGES

- Chinese
- English

AREAS OF FOCUS

- Capital Markets

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

- Represented an online health care platform in China in its US$3.47 billion IPO and listing on the HKEx in December 2020.
- Represented a China-based consumer tech company in its US$150 million IPO and listing on Nasdaq.
- Represented a provider of technology-driven supply-chain solutions and logistics services in its US$3.2 billion IPO and listing on the HKEx.
- Represented an investment holding company in its HK$580 million IPO and listing on the HKEx.
- Represented a service website that enables users to share voices and personal radio stations in its proposed IPO and listing on the HKEx.
- Represented a provider of software solutions in its proposed US and HK IPO.
- Represented a Chinese beauty brand management group in its proposed IPO and listing on the HKEx.
- Represented a leading social platform in China in its proposed US and HK IPO.
- Represented a provider of esports tournament operation, esports community engagement, game development, and other services in its proposed IPO & listing on the HKEx.
- Represented a rapidly growing international delivery company with a core business in express services and cross-border logistics J&T Express in its proposed US IPO (sponsor side).
- Represented a Chinese B2B pharmaceutical trading platform in its HK IPO.