OVERVIEW

Mr. Meagher is a partner in the Pittsburgh office. He concentrates his practice on insurance coverage and complex commercial litigation. He has broad litigation and arbitration experience.

In the insurance coverage area, Mr. Meagher represents corporate policyholders seeking coverage under many different types of insurance policies. His recent insurance coverage experience includes cases involving commercial general liability policies, cyber policies, "Bermuda Form" excess liability policies, pollution liability policies, professional liability policies, directors and officers (D&O) policies, property policies, and energy package policies. He also counsels clients regarding their insurance coverage programs and cyber incident response plans outside of litigation.

In the commercial litigation area, Mr. Meagher represents both plaintiffs and defendants in disputes arising out of a wide variety of commercial transactions. His recent commercial litigation experience includes representing financial services sector clients in breach of contract/breach of fiduciary duty litigation.

In addition to his core practice areas, Mr. Meagher represents pro bono clients seeking Protection From Abuse orders, and has represented the Rails-to-Trails Conservancy in an appeal before the Pennsylvania Supreme Court.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to law school, Mr. Meagher served on the staff of then-U.S. Senate Majority Leader Thomas A. Daschle (D-SD).
