OVERVIEW

Stacy G. Ackermann is a finance partner in the firm's Charlotte office and is a practice area leader for the firm's global finance practice. Her work includes the representation of servicers, lenders, investors, and other market participants in all aspects of various financial and credit market transactions. Stacy has extensive experience representing servicers of commercial mortgage-backed securities, including securitizations, the purchase and sale of servicing rights and loan workout and restructurings. She also regularly represents servicers and lenders in all other aspects of loan-level asset management, including loan assumptions, leasing matters and defeasances.

Stacy routinely serves on panels and leads training sessions relating to current issues in structured financing transactions. She is also an active member of CREFC, where she is a Co-Chair of the 17g-5 Best Practices Committee and Pooling and Servicing Agreement task force.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND
