

Claire de Koeyer

Lawyer

Melbourne
+61.3.9205.2006

claire.dekoeyer@klgates.com

OVERVIEW

Claire de Koeyer is a regulatory lawyer in the health and life sciences industries with a particular focus on pharmaceutical, private health insurance and aged care / retirement living sectors.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining the firm in 2016, Claire worked as a paralegal in a boutique law firm. Ms. de Koeyer also completed internships at another global law firm and a national law firm.

PROFESSIONAL / CIVIC ACTIVITIES

- Law Institute of Victoria (Member)
- Victorian Women Lawyers (Committee Member)

EDUCATION

- Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice, College of Law, Victoria, 2016
- B.Com, Deakin University, 2015
- LL.B., Deakin University, 2015

ADMISSIONS

- Supreme Court of Victoria

THOUGHT LEADERSHIP POWERED BY HUB

- 5 May 2017, Voice biometrics and fraud prevention in payments (Research Surveys)
- 5 May 2017, ASIC signs fintech Cooperation Agreement with Indonesia (Research Surveys)

- 20 April 2017, FCA outlines FinTech and RegTech priorities for year ahead (Research Surveys)

AREAS OF FOCUS

- Mergers and Acquisitions

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

- Advising on the application of the Australian Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (Cth).
- Assisting a foreign asset management company in obtaining ASIC registration in Australia.
- Advising a global payment facility provider about the Australian regulation of non-cash payment facilities and assisting it to respond to inquiries from ASIC.
- Advising a large technology company in relation to insurance products as financial products.
- Advising superannuation fund trustees on regulatory requirements.
- Advising one of Australia's major retail banks with its financial planning dealer group and private wealth regulatory compliance.
- Reviewing Product Disclosure Statements for fund managers including to address ASIC's disclosure benchmark requirements.