OVERVIEW

Tony Griffiths is the managing partner of the firm's Brussels, Dubai, and Doha offices and the managing partner, Europe and Middle East. He is also a member of the Finance practice. He focuses on business recovery and turnaround issues. His experience extends to construction, financial services, insurance and asset leasing industry sectors.

Tony advises on contentious and non-contentious matters, including the restructuring and refinancing of companies and groups of companies involving debt-equity swaps, bank supported workouts and structured settlements of unsecured liabilities. In addition, he has advised on credit rating issues for banks and substantial companies, as well as on counter-guarantees in relation to substantial project finance initiatives.

Tony advises lenders and insolvency professionals in relation to factoring arrangements. He also acts for insolvency professionals and purchasers on business and asset sales. He is best known for his work in the financial services insolvency sector, where he regularly advises insolvency practitioners, regulatory bodies, banks and counter-parties.
