OVERVIEW

Pallavi Mehta Wahi is the Managing Partner of the Seattle office and Co-Managing Partner of the United States for K&L Gates. She is a member of the Firmwide Management Committee. Pallavi frequently represents clients in complex commercial litigation matters and works closely with many Fortune 50 corporations and other companies worldwide, representing their interests with an emphasis on corporate and technology issues. She has argued before various tribunals and courts in hearings and at trial with success. She has represented clients across the country in multiple jurisdictions in commercial and intellectual property disputes. She also acts as the trusted advisor and litigator for several clients across a wide range of jurisdictions, countries, and business matter areas. She represents some of the largest household brands in the world on a regular basis as their trusted advisor.

Pallavi is ranked in Chambers USA for Litigation: General Commercial in Washington State. She also has been named to the Washington Super Lawyers list for Business Litigation for many years; the “IP Stars” list published by Managing Intellectual Property in the U.S. and Washington State categories; and recognized in Best Lawyers in America in the Commercial Litigation and Litigation – IP categories. She has also been recognized by the Legal 500 US for commercial litigation. She has been included in “The A-List: International,” a list of the top India-focused lawyers at international law firms for many years, compiled by The Indian Business Law Journal.

Pallavi has also been named one of the 100 most influential lawyers in the U.S. by editors and writers across The Business Journals' network of more than 40 publications. For many years, she has been honored with inclusion in the Puget Sound Business Journal's “Power 100,” a spotlight on the 100 most influential business leaders in the Puget Sound area. The Puget Sound Business Journal also recognized her as a “Woman of Influence” and a member of the first-ever group of 40 Under 40 “All-Stars.” She was also selected as one of the Most Influential People of 2021 by Seattle Magazine.

Pallavi was also named to the fifth annual “Power List” by Lawyers of Color which recognizes the most influential minority attorneys and allies in the nation. She was included in the inaugural “Nation’s Best” List, also published by Lawyers of Color, which recognizes noteworthy accomplishments and a commitment to diversity and inclusion. She was selected by the National Diversity Council as one of Washington’s “Top 15 Business Women” and selected to the Indian Corporate Counsel Association's “Most Trusted Corporate Lawyers” list. She is also a past recipient of the Outstanding Young Lawyer Award from the King County Bar Association.

Pallavi is an experienced and well-known litigator in the local and national arena and business community. In 2022, she was appointed to the Seattle Branch Board of Directors of The Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco to represent the interests of the 12th Reserve District and help the Board fulfill its policy and operational responsibilities. She is currently serving as the Chair of the Greater Seattle Chamber of Commerce Board and is a passionate advocate for the Seattle business community and the people and companies who help it thrive. She is also an active member of the International Women's Forum.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining the firm, Pallavi was associated with the Seattle firm of Stokes Lawrence P.S. She was also a Rule 6 law clerk to the Hon. Commissioner William H. Ellis at the Washington State Court of Appeals, Division I.

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

- Represented a large international food and beverage producer and retailer in a multi-million dollar lawsuit against a global supplier of kitchenware products involving the recall of a co-branded kitchen device. Through contentious discovery battles and motions practice, our team obtained court orders dismissing certain claims, shielding our client and their foreign affiliates from liability, curtailing the scope of discovery and obtaining a favorable settlement.

- Represented an up-and-coming producer of premium fresh soup products in a dispute with a flagship soup company over a co-manufacturing agreement in Washington State Superior Court for King County. Our team won an early partial motion for summary judgment that entitled our client to its termination costs irrespective of allegations or the limitation of liability clause in the co-manufacturing agreement. Our team was able to settle the dispute favorable to our client.
- Represented a large international food and beverage producer and retailer in a telecommunications agreement dispute with a multinational internet service provider. Our team initiated arbitration with the American Arbitration Association on behalf of our client with protracted negotiations that resulted in a favorable settlement.
- Represented an international software company in multiple litigation matters worldwide, including litigation for recovery associated with software license compliance.
- Global coordinating counsel for an international advice program for an international publicly traded corporation in multiple countries.
- Represented a large company in a far-reaching licensing and contractual dispute that included breach of contract and copyright infringement issues. The matter was favorably settled and the proceedings were closed to any further claims.
- Represented the bankruptcy trustee in over 50 fraudulent transfer actions against investors in a Ponzi scheme in federal Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Washington.
- Represented owner of a company in a multi-party fraud case arising out of a multi-million dollar sale of a hi-tech company which was successfully settled.
- Successfully obtained judgment on coverage for offshore environmental liabilities for a policyholder, under an energy package policy, in federal court in Louisiana relating to Hurricane Ivan.
- Represented a public entity in two multi-million dollar complex multi-party environmental litigation cases on the Duwamish River which were settled.
- Represented a mobile communications company against breach of contract and trademark infringement claims by an independent mobile network testing firm. The matter was favorably settled. a national wireless carrier in federal court in California in a case involving technology and publicity rights.
- Represented a medical equipment manufacturing company in a fraud cause which was dismissed as a result of a successful motion to dismiss in federal court in Kentucky.
- Represented a large international company in state trial court in a complex contractual cross border dispute with an international vendor relating to Master Services and related agreements. Case involved complex contractual issues as well as cross border discovery with issues of first impression.
- Represented companies, online market research firm, online retail companies, financial firms and their employees in multiple trade secrets, non-compete and unfair competition disputes in court and in arbitrations.

- Represented a large international client in a nationwide litigation rights enforcement campaign involving multiple state and federal lawsuits across the United States.
- Global coordinating counsel for a shipping company in multiple matters in Asia, Australia, Europe, and the United States.
- Represented the personal representative of an estate in a bench trial and obtained judgment after trial in a complex estate litigation matter in Washington State Superior Court.
- Successfully represented the developer of the world's tallest structure in reclaiming its domain name and reaffirming its common law trade name rights in accordance with ICANN's Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy.
- Represented online market research firm in defense of claims brought by a competitor for alleged misappropriation of trade secrets and violations of non-solicitation agreements. Case settled for far less than the costs of defense following a motion for summary judgment.
- Represented wireless telecommunications company in malpractice action involving cell phone patent rights and technology in a federal jury trial. Obtained favorable federal court jury verdict and settlement.
