OVERVIEW

Mitchell Moximchalk is a partner who focuses his practice on estate and tax planning for high-net-worth individuals, servicing family offices for high-net-worth families, and business succession planning for family businesses. As a subset of his practice, Mitchell also has estate and tax planning experience with professional athletes and other individuals associated with the sports industry.

A highly responsive and trusted advisor, Mitchell is regularly the "first call" for his clients when needs arise. These needs encompass many areas of the law, including, but not limited to, the formation and governance of for-profit and non-profit entities, real estate transactions, and investment structuring. As a result, Mitchell is intimately familiar with the K&L Gates platform and its resources, which allows him to provide efficient subject matter expertise to his clients across a variety of areas.

Mitchell is licensed in Pennsylvania, New York, and North Carolina, but his practice has nationwide and international reach.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining the K&L Gates, Mr. Moximchalk worked at a Pittsburgh law firm where he was an associate in its estates and trusts practice group.
