OVERVIEW

Lauren Sandground is an associate at the firm's Washington, D.C. office, where she is a member of the insurance coverage and investigations, enforcement, and white collar practice groups.

In insurance coverage, Lauren represents insurance policyholders in coverage disputes involving D&O liability, employment practices liability, long-tail environmental liability, product recalls, and supply chain issues within the food and consumer products industries.

In investigations, enforcement, and white collar, Lauren focuses her practice on the defense of individuals and corporations subject to government investigations and regulatory enforcement actions, particularly by state and federal securities regulators.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

During law school, Lauren interned with the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of Arizona, the Virginia Commonwealth's Attorney for the City of Waynesboro, and the Max Planck Institute for Public and International Law in Heidelberg, Germany. Prior to attending law school, she was a paralegal at a family law practice in Northern Virginia.

Lauren was a summer associate at K&L Gates in 2017.
