

Amy J. Horn

Chief Officer of People and Projects

Dallas Fort Worth Pittsburgh
+1.214.939.4965 +1.817.347.5031 +1.412.355.6500

amy.horn@klgates.com

OVERVIEW

Amy Horn is the chief officer of people and projects at the firm. In her role, she is responsible for developing and executing personnel strategies in support of the firm's overall business plan and strategic direction. Amy also leads and directs functions related to the firm's personnel, thereby developing strategies regarding the firm's human resources, analyzing and automating processes, and identifying methods for continuous improvement and efficiencies. She also serves as the assistant secretary to the management committee.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining the firm, Amy served in senior roles with organizations which provided management consulting services to US-based law firms.

EDUCATION

- J.D., Duquesne University School of Law, 1994
- B.A., Hiram College, 1991

ADMISSIONS

- Bar of Pennsylvania

NEWS & EVENTS

- 10 February 2020, K&L Gates Adds Mini-MBA Program as Latest Offering in Firm's Distinctive Professional Development Series (Press Release)