OVERVIEW

Alexander Woolley is a trainee solicitor in the firm's London office. He is a member of the corporate practice group. He previously sat in the banking and asset finance practice group, and the complex commercial litigation and disputes resolution practice group.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining the firm, Alexander served as a legal consultant at a legal consulting startup where he ran a project assessing the suitability of parties for close-out netting provisions in ISDA agreements. He analyzed legal opinions across multiple jurisdictions and compared these to the status of various clients in order to determine their suitability for netting.
