OVERVIEW

Jonathan Lim is a counsel in the firm's Singapore office. He is a member of the energy, infrastructure, and resources practice area. His core practice involves international arbitration, dispute resolution and advisory work in the areas of construction, energy, shipping, and international trade and commodities.

He has advised and represented clients on a wide range of matters, including construction claims, complex commercial arbitrations, offshore oil and gas disputes, charterparty and cargo claims, commodities disputes, and offshore-related service contracts.

Jonathan also has extensive arbitration experience, having been instructed by clients on arbitrations seated in Singapore (SIAC, SCMA, and ad-hoc), London (ICC, LMAA, LCIA, and ad-hoc), Kuala Lumpur (KLRCA/AIAC), and Hong Kong (HKIAC).

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Prior to joining the firm, Jonathan served as a dispute resolution senior associate at another international commercial law firm in Singapore, where he focused his practice in the areas of offshore energy, shipping, and international trade and commodities.
